

Japanese — English Language School offers you the following English language courses

:

-

Courses for school children (age 10-15) — the lessons are usually held twice a week, ~ 60 min. Registration is based on your language level.

-

General courses — courses of the English language for older pupils and grown-ups. Registration is based on your language level.

-

Preparation for state exam — we will help you to prepare to pass the state exam in the English language successfully. The course includes careful study of the state exams from previous years and elaborate workout of all five parts of the exam: listening, writing, reading, language structures and oral part.

-

Courses for companies — in accordance with your enterprise/company request we organise the courses for your personnel. The packet is developed specially for the needs of your company, peculiarity and language competence of employees. The courses can be held either in our rooms or at your place.

-

English for secretaries — a short courses for secretaries and assistants those who have obtained levels A2 and B1 of the language. The lessons are held twice a week, ~90 min. The course comprises 20 academic hours.